FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Ultimate Sales Incentives has now helped small businesses level the playing field. Without having to have an advertising budget of thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars, Ultimate Sales Incentives allows those businesses to compete by offering their customers the opportunity to travel using over 25 of the industries leading travel incentives. Says Reco McDaniel, the President and Chief Executive Officer, "We were looking for an opportunity that would allow those struggling businesses to compete in what many consider to be a down economy without stretching their budget."

Reco McDaniel is no stranger to hard work—prior to starting his own network marketing company with his partner, Keith Fraley, he built a Multi-Million Dollar Producing business in the home business sector. Says Reco, "The mission of our company is to create relationships with vendors to bring quality products to consumers at affordable prices while ensuring ongoing profits for their representatives."

When Reco and Keith introduced the Ultimate Sales Incentives, they knew they had found something that would instantly add value to a business looking to increase revenue, retain customers and build loyalty. Keith, Chief Operating Officer and Senior Vice President, states, "a combination of world class services along with proven leadership is just a couple of the traits that our company offers. With the introduction of the Ultimate Sales Incentives, we see an opportunity to empower people's lives by showing them a better way. The company is the first of it's kind to offer such a quality product at an affordable price." The Ultimate Sales Incentive membership is only $49.99/month and gives those who purchase it unlimited access to over 25 travel and discount incentives.

"I love the fact that we are in our first year and are already producing record numbers. This is probably the first company to provide a necessity-based service attached to an income opportunity that the average person can succeed in!"

Ultimate Sales Incentives is based out of Atlanta, GA and helps businesses and entrepreneurs the opportunity to elevate their results by offering them unlimited access to the industry's best travel incentives and discount vouchers.
